NUMB. 2438

MONDAY, APRIL 4. 1743.

Since our last arrived Two Mails from France, and One from Holland.

Petersburgh, March 16.

THAT evil Spirit which first shewed itself at Moscow, has revived here; and some, who besides the general Duty of Subjects owed particular Obligations to her Imperial Majesty, have shown such a Want of Decency as well as Affection towards her, that it was found absolutely necessary to give a Check to their Insolence; and therefore in the Night between the 9th and 10th Instant, the Prince of Hesse-Hombourg, at the Head of a Detachment of Horse and Foot, secured 36 Officers and Soldiers of the Guards, and carried them Prisoners, some to the Summer Palace and others to the Fortrefs. A Courier dispatch'd the 6th from Abo by General Keith, brought the welcome News, that the Island Aland, situated near the Coasts of Finland, had voluntarily submitted to her Imperial Majesty, and that the Inhabitants had taken an Oath of Fidelity to the Czarina, and to her declared Successor the Great Duke. Veldt-Marshal Lacy is to command again the Troops intended to set against the Swedes, and at his Request the same General Officers who served under him last Year, are also to serve under him this. All our Gallies and Flat-bottom'd Vessels are ordered to be got in readiness with the utmost Diligence; whence, we apprehend, it is designed to make a Descent on Sweden; and that Veldt-Marshal Lacy will command in Person the Troops employ'd in that Service.

Stockholm, March 29. That Violence with which the Order of Peasants endeavoured to drive on the Affair of the Succession, instead of accelerating its Determination has retarded it. The other Three Orders have represented, that this ought to be consider'd as a Point about which they ought to use Abundance of Circumspection; that all the Orders must be at full Liberty in giving their Sentiments thereon, to render the Election valid; that it would be convenient, therefore, instead of being so hot about it, to appoint a Committee to prepare Things, and to proceed to an Election till that Committee should make their Report. By this Means the Election is again postponed, such a Committee is actually appointed, and they are to make their Report by the 9th of next Month at farthest. The Nobility and Clergy exerted themselves exceedingly on this Occasion, to preserve their Independency; the Peasants having of late assumed a Power, and carried Things with so high a Hand in the Diet, as is altogether inconsistent with the Constitution. The Secret Committee too proceed very vigorously; never a Day passes but they arrest some Person or other, and frequently two or three. The Conferences are still carried on at Abo, but with such Secrecy, that No-body can tell whether the Peace is in a fair Way being concluded, or not.

Copenhagen, April 2. This City has furnish'd his Majesty with 300 Horses for the Train, and the rest of the Troops in Denmark are to furnish 1200. Two Regiments are expected daily from Norway. There will still be no Camp this Year in Holstein, the Troops were to have compos'd it are to serve on board the Ships. As yet the Court has publish'd nothing concerning its Armaments, but it is thought, that as soon as the Election is over, a Manifesto on this Subject will be sent to the Press. The English Minister, Mr. Titley, presents the Court more than ever, and we begin to see the Treaty of Subsidy formerly talk'd of is ready; tho' some assign a quite different Reason for the Conference he has lately had with our Ministers.

Madrid, March 23. The Court of Spain lately caus'd an Order to be made to his Majesty of an absolute Cession of the Duchy of Milan, on Condition he would grant a Philip to march into Italy, and join that under the Command of the Count de Gages. But his Majesty refused it, and declar'd he had already receiv'd Satisfaction in his Claims on that Duchy. Count Traun has also his Resolution of pushing Count de Gages, and has order'd to assist his Majesty with a Reinforcement, in order to enable him to enter Savoy in the beginning of the Month. The Duke of Alba has been lately at Genoa on an odd Errand. The young Marquis de Lede has been missing from the Spanish Army ever since the Battle of Campo Santo, and the Duke has hopes of getting some Intelligence of him there, but is disappointed. The Marquis's Relations are the nearest, because not long ago a young Nobleman, whose Mother is a great Favourite in the Spanish Court, withdrew in the same manner, and having procured Count Traun's Pass, is now actually in the Queen of Hungary's Service in Germany.

Vienna, March 23. The Great Duke of Tuscany and his Brother Prince Charles hunted on the 20th in this Neighbourhood. General Linden, who arrived here lately, has Orders to follow his Regiment of Dragoons into Italy. Her Majesty has lately made a Present of her Picture set with Diamonds to Mr. Villiers, the British Minister to the Court of Dresden. Besides the Proportion of Troops which the Principality of Transylvania engaged to furnish for her Majesty's Service, there is raised in that Country a complete Regiment of Hussars, consisting of 1500 Men, all Zelkens, a Nation living in the Mountains there, supposed to be the unmix'd Descendants of the ancient Huns, and equally remarkable for extraordinary Strength of Body and invincible Firmness of Mind, by which they have preserved their Liberty to this Day, and actually inrol themselves freely upon this Occasion.

Frankfort, April 3. The Court received the Day before Yesterday News from Munich, that the Princess Anne, eldest Sister to his Imperial Majesty, died lately in a Convent in that City, in the 47th Year of her Age, being born August 4, 1696. The Imperial Family is in the utmost Consternation, at the Loss of three Princesses so suddenly; and the Concern has affected the Emperor so much, as to throw him back into the Gout. An Express arriv'd this Morning from Bavaria, with Advice of a rough Action between the Imperialists and Austrians, to the Advantage of the former; but Private Letters state the Case otherwise, and say we have lost 500 Men. The same Letters say, that Veldt-Marshal Count Khevenhuller has rejoined the Army, and by the Preparations he is making, it is apprehended he has the Bombardment of some considerable Place in View. Patents for the Election at Mentz are already fix'd up: It comes on the 22d of this Month. The Chapter have already resolv'd not to elect ex Gremio, or without their own Body, and have chosen Count d'Elz, the late Elector's Nephew, Provost of the Cathedral.

Cologne, April 3. Not only the First Column of the English have pass'd the Rhine near Neuweid, on the 3d of this Month, and continued their March towards the Meyn, but the Hanoverians also are advancing the same Way. One of their Detachments, composed of Grenadiers and Pioneers, pass'd the Rhine at Mulheim. They march thro' Westerwald, and the rest of their Countrymen will take the same Route.

Brussels, April 4. The Decree for settling the Franchises was transmitted the First of this Month to the Council of Finances to be registered, but it will not take Place till the First of October. The Sequestration of the Lordship of Winendal, belonging to the Elector Palatine, is taken off. The French are in continual Motion about the Moselle and Meuse, and labour Day and Night in repairing their Fortified Places in those Parts, especially Montmedi, about eight Leagues from Luxembourg.

Hague, April 10. Our last Advices from Switzerland assure us, That the Cantons have resolv'd to prevent the Spaniards from forcing a Passage thro' Valais, and are even despatching a considerable Body of Troops into that Country. Count Golofskin has acquainted the Lords of the Regency with the Submission of the Island of Aland to the Empress of Russia, his Sovereign. Our last Accounts from Smyrna say, that the Shah Nadir was preparing to attack the Turks.

Extract from the Paris Almanac.

Paris, April 10. The Duke de Chartres is declared General of the Horse in Flanders; his Equipage will set out the 17th, and his Serene Highness on the 22d. The Prince of Conti sets out on the 10th.

Marshal Maillebois arriv'd at Versailles on the 4th from Bavaria.

We have certain Advice that 6000 English have pass'd the Rhine at Coblenz, or near it, in order to penetrate into Bavaria, and so place our Troops there between two Fires; upon which Orders have been sent to our Forces in Alsace to pass the Rhine immediately, and seize the strong Camp of Heilborn.

Marshal Noailles will not set out for Lorraine till the 20th.

The Venetian Ambassador, M. Cornaro, is making prodigious Preparations for his Publick Entry.

They write from Dunkirk, that they work hard at restoring and augmenting their Fortifications, and that they are raising seven Battalions to guard and defend the Country thereabouts.

Actions 2120.

From the London Gazette.

Whitehall, March 31, 1743.

The Lords of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council have this Day, by his Majesty's Command, wrote the following Letter to the Custodes Rotulorum of all the Counties in England and Wales; and also to the Mayors of Cities and Towns, being Counties within themselves. AFTER our very hearty Commendations in the Ninth Year of His Majesty's Reign, intituled, "An Act for laying a Duty upon the Retailers of Spirituous Liquors, and for Licensing the Retailers thereof;" all Persons are prohibited to sell any Spirituous Liquors, or Strong Waters about the Streets, Highways, or the Fields, in any Wheelbarrow or Basket, or on the Water, or any Stall, Bulk, or Shed, under the Penalty of Ten Pounds for each Offence; and Power is thereby given to one or more Justices of the Peace, to convict such Offender in the Manner therein mentioned, and on Neglect to pay it, to commit him or her to the House of Correction for two Months. And whereas by another Act made in the present Session of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for Repealing certain Duties on Spirituous Liquors, and on Licences for Retailing the same; and for laying other Duties on Spirituous Liquors, and on Licences to retail the said Liquors," all Persons are prohibited to sell by Retail Spirituous Liquors and Strong Waters, unless they shall be Licenced thereto in the Manner therein directed, under the Penalty of Ten Pounds for every Offence, to be paid on Conviction before one or more Justices of the Peace, and on Non-Payment, of being committed to the House of Correction for Two Months. And whereas it is thereby provided and enacted, that no Licence shall be granted to any but to such Persons as keep Taverns, Victualling-houses, Inns, Coffee-houses or Alehouses, nor shall any such be enabled to sell by Retail Spirituous Liquors or Strong Waters, unless they shall first have a Licence also to sell Ale or Spirituous Liquors from two or more Justices. And whereas by one Act of Parliament made in the Fourth Year of the Reign of King James the First, intituled, "An Act for Repressing the odious and loathsome Sin of Drunkenness;" And by one other Act in the Twenty-first Year of his Reign, intituled, "An Act for the better Repressing of Drunkenness, and Restraining the inordinate Haunting of Inns, Alehouses, and other Victualling-Houses." And by other Acts divers Penalties are inflicted on Persons guilty of the Crime of Drunkenness, or who sit tipping in Alehouses contrary to Law, and Power is thereby given to the Justices of the Peace to carry the said Laws into Execution. And whereas it hath been represented to his Majesty, that notwithstanding the said Act of the Ninth of his Majesty, and the said Acts made against Drunkenness and Tipping, the Practice of excessive drinking Spirituous Liquors has not been prevented, and divers disorderly and irregular Persons have taken upon themselves to sell the same by Retail, contrary to the said Act of the Ninth of his Majesty, and do still continue the same; his Majesty taking the same into his serious Consideration, and being desirous to put a Stop, as much as in him lieth, to a Custom so destructive of the Health, Morals, and Industry of his Subjects, and to the Peace of his Kingdom, and being sensible that the faithful and diligent Execution of the said Laws would effectually remedy the said Evil; We therefore in his Majesty's Name, and by his express Commands, pray and require your Lordship to recommend it to, and press it in the strongest Manner upon the Justices of the Peace within the County whereof your Lordship is Custos Rotulorum, that they use their utmost Endeavours to carry all the said Laws into Execution, and more especially that they take particular Care not to grant Licences for selling Ale or Spirituous Liquors to any but such as are strictly qualified according to Law, and as are not known to be guilty of any disorderly Practices, or likely to suffer them in their Houses, and that they do call before them the High-Constables and Petty-Constables, and all other Officers under their Direction, and give them the strictest Orders not to suffer any Persons to sell Spirituous Liquors in the Streets, or other prohibited Places, and to be very industrious in discovering, apprehending, and bringing to Punishment all Persons guilty of the said Vice of Drunkenness, and other Offences prohibited by the said Laws. And so not doubting of your ready Compliance therewith, we bid your Lordship very heartily farewell.

From the Council-Chamber at Whitehall, the 31st Day of March, 1743.

General Post-Office, London, March 10, 1742.

WHEREAS notwithstanding the Publick Notice that has been so repeatedly given by this Office, as well in the Gazette as in the other News Papers, concerning the Foreign Postage which is to be paid here for all Letters that are to go to Germany, Italy, or any other Country beyond Holland, France, or Flanders, Mistakes have sometimes been made, and Letters have been delivered at this Office, directed to those Countries, without paying the Foreign Postage, as required by Act of Parliament; the Postmaster-General has thought fit to advertise, That the Postage to be paid here at this Office, or at the respective Receiving-Houses or Offices appointed and authorized for the taking in of Letters in Town or Country, by all Persons corresponding with Germany, Italy, or any Foreign Parts in the North or the South, by the Way of Holland, France, or Flanders, is after the following Rates; viz.

Between London and any Part of Germany, Italy, Sicily, Switzerland, Denmark, or Sweden, and all Parts of the North (thro' Holland) Single, 1 s. Double, 2 s. Treble, 3 s. Ounce, 4 s.

Between London and any Part of Spain or Portugal (thro' France, or by Packet-boats directly) Single, 1 s. 6 d. Double, 3 s. Treble, 4 s. 6 d. Ounce, 6 s.

Between London and any Part of Italy or Sicily (thro' France, by Way of Lyons) or any Part of Turkey, by Way of Marseilles, Single, 1 s. 3 d. Double, 2 s. 6 d. Treble, 3 s. 9 d. Ounce, 5 s.

And it is to be observed, That on Failure of such Payment of the above Rates, no Letters to such Foreign Parts can be forwarded from this Office; and that for all Letters directed to Foreign Countries, by the Way of Holland, France, and Flanders, as above, sent to this Office to be forwarded from any Parts of the Kingdom of Great Britain, distant from London, or from any Parts of Ireland, the usual Inland Postage to London is also to be paid, over and above the Foreign Postage.

N. B. By a Cover of Separate Paper to a Letter of a Single Sheet it becomes a Double Letter; and if such Cover be to a Double Letter it becomes Treble, and is to be paid for accordingly.

By Command of the Post-master General,
GEORGE SHELVOCKE, Secretary.
